

HERITAGE PETROLEUM ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF PETROLEUM MARKETER/DISTRIBUTOR IN WASHINGTON INDIANA April 1, 2019

EVANSVILLE - Heritage Petroleum, LLC (HP) today announced it has acquired Frette Energy Company. (FEC) based in Washington, IN. The acquisition solidifies HP's presence in the Southern, IN and is a continuation of HP's strategy of establishing a network of operational hubs allowing HP to better service customers within a 300 mile radius of Evansville and beyond.

Steve Frette (Owner) will remain with the Heritage team to ensure a smooth transition for the existing customers and to continue to grow market share through their long-standing business relationships in the area. Additionally, current customers of (FEC) will now have access to the buying power of HP, Trading Division and Supply, Pacific Pride Commercial Fueling, and the sophisticated fuel and price management services offered by HP.

Heritage Petroleum, LLC is a privately-held wholesale petroleum marketer/distributor that provides fuel transport services, commercial fueling, Enterprise and Colonial pipeline services, emergency management, lubricants services and sophisticated fuel and price management services for companies in the U.S.

Headquartered in Evansville, Indiana. HP offers a complete line of fuel products including petroleum fuels, fixed forward pricing, alternative fuels, additives, oils and Shell, Pennzoil, Quaker State, Philips 66, and Starfire Lubricants.

If you are interested in discussing an exit plan for your business please contact:

Aaron Gabe, President

Phone: 812-598-1111

agabe@heritageoil.com