

HERITAGE PETROLEUM, LLC ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF PETROLEUM
MARKETER/DISTRIBUTOR IN Greater Louisville, KY area. July 2016

EVANSVILLE - Heritage Petroleum, LLC (HP) today announced it has acquired Supreme Oil Company, Inc. (Supreme) which is based in New Albany, IN. The acquisition solidifies HP's presence in the Louisville, KY Market and Southern, IN and is a continuation of HP's strategy of establishing a network of operational hubs to allow HP to better service customers while extending our reach to service new customers in even more markets.

Matt and Suzy and their team will remain with the HP team to ensure a smooth transition for the existing customers and to continue to grow market share through their long-standing business relationships in the area. Additionally, current customers of (Supreme) will now have access to the buying power of HP, Pacific Pride Commercial Fueling, and the sophisticated fuel and price management services offered by HP. Details of the transaction were not disclosed.

HP is a privately-held wholesale petroleum marketer/distributor that provides fuel transport services, commercial fueling, Enterprise and Colonial pipeline services, emergency management, lubricants services and sophisticated fuel and price management services for companies in the U.S.

Headquartered in Evansville, Indiana. HP offers a complete line of fuel products including petroleum fuels, alternative fuels, additives, oils provided by Shell, Pennzoil, Quaker State, Phillips 66 Lubricants, and Heritage House Lubricants.

If you are interested in discussing an exit plan for your business please contact:

Aaron Gabe, Vice President
Phone:812-598-1111
agabe@heritageoil.com